

The Catherine B. Reynolds Civil War Washington Teacher Fellows

Join up to 20 teachers to learn about Abraham Lincoln, Frederick Douglass and Washington during the Civil War as you spend a day at each of these fascinating sites!

Session 2 (Boarders, all grades) Evening of Sunday, July 8 to Friday, July 13, 2012

As part of our six-day, six-night program, you will:

- Walk in the footsteps of Abraham Lincoln at Ford's Theatre
- Experience the home of a southern sympathizer at Tudor Place Historic House and Garden
- Immerse yourself in Lincoln's ideas at President Lincoln's Cottage
- Walk the halls of Cedar Hill, home of the famed abolitionist Frederick Douglass

Come away from your week in Washington familiar with: an array of virtual tours, the oratory skills to get your students on their feet performing speeches by Lincoln and Douglass; comfortable taking students on content-driven experiential learning adventures; and excited about using classroom drama to help historic characters come alive!

- Out-of-town registration fee of $1,000 includes a single room for five nights at the Willard Intercontinental Hotel and air transportation on American Airlines
- Out-of-town registration fee of $600 includes a shared room and air transportation
- Registration fee includes workshops, materials, breakfasts and lunches, as well as dinner on Sunday evening.
- All Fellows are eligible to obtain 3 graduate credit hours through Trinity University for an additional $375
